With a 75 year history, DECA has impacted the lives of more than ten million students, educators, school administrators and business professionals since it was founded in 1946. Their strong connection with our organization has resonated into a brand that people identify as a remarkable experience in the preparation of emerging leaders and entrepreneurs. DECA's programs and activities have constantly evolved as we use the latest technology and apply cutting edge educational research. Our core focus has remained consistent and is captured in our mission.

Collegiate DECA's educational conferences are an important opportunity for students, integrating knowledge and skills learned in the classroom into real world experiences.

Members may sign up to participate in conferences which provide unique access to internships, scholarships and professional networking.

ENGAGE, meeting each fall, is an exciting professional development experience. Through networking opportunities, career development seminars, and in-depth industry tours, attendees will leave feeling confident and ready to conquer their career goals, whatever they may be!

The International Career Development Conference (ICDC) convenes each Spring.

What is DECA?

DECA Inc. is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit student organization with members in the United States and around the world. The United States Congress, the United States Department of Education, and international departments of education authorize DECA's programs.

DECA at Chabot

- ◆ Develops programs for students and leadership
- ◆ Develops an annual conference for college and high school students
- ◆ Works with the Business Advisory Board to create mentorships
- ◆ Attends national conferences and participates in competitions
- ◆ Creates a business assistance cluster and helps local businesses
- ◆ Develops business and network relationships with local chambers of commerce and non-profit organizations including Habitat for Humanity.

Competitive Events

DECA's activities, programs, and competitions are clustered around six academic areas:

Business Management and Administration

Accounting and Finance

Marketing and Sales

Hospitality and Tourism

Entrepreneurship

Competitive events recognize student achievement, and provide opportunities for traveling to conferences and networking, while testing the knowledge and skills of members.
